

Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, — AUG. 11, 1900

From Wednesday's Daily.

Albert Schatz, from El Paso, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

V. S. Miera, brother of County Commissioner Miera, is again in the territorial metropolis.

William Brown, connected with the Santa Fe at El Paso, came in from the south this morning.

Hon. Pedro Perez and wife, who were here on a visit to relatives, returned to Bernardo this morning.

Mrs. Mira Frost, of Las Vegas, was here yesterday on探子 court; meets. She registered at the Hotel Highland.

While Samuel Johnson is enjoying his vacation in Colorado, F. E. Skinner is officiating as the night chief clerk at the local freight office.

H. P. Fitch, son of Captain and Mrs. A. H. Fitch, is a passenger to the city this morning from Magdalena. He stops at the Standard European.

Mr. Dutson and family came in from the west this morning and continued east on a visit. Mr. Dutson is the Harvey hotel manager at Winslow.

H. E. Fox, the well-known jeweler and watch inspector, out west, was a passenger for Gallup and Winslow last night, to be absent for several days.

Felix Lester, attorney, who went up to the Rio Pecos country a few days ago, returned to the city last night accompanied by Mrs. Lester and daughter.

W. P. Nott, one of the traveling superintendents of the Harveyeating house, came in from the west this morning and will visit city relatives and friends for a few days.

Captain "Red Hot" Frost, conductor on the west end of the Santa Fe Pacific, came in this morning to enjoy a day's visit with his wife. He returns to Winslow-to-night.

District Attorney T. A. Finical was a passenger for El Paso, Texas, this morning, where he goes on some important legal matters. He will probably be absent several days.

Hon. Neil B. Field, the attorney, was a passenger for the upper Rio Pecos country this morning. When he returns to the city in about a week, he will be accompanied home by his wife.

Gus Mullikind, of Gallup, is making a big success out of his well-horing plant. He has just finished a 300-foot well at Gibson, which supplies about 45,000 gallons of water per day.

Mrs. Gibson and son, John Gibson, mother and brother of James Gibson, the railway line repairer, returned to their home in Topeka, Kan., after a pleasant visit in this city.

Miss Mary Smith, of Gallup, who was here the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Norris and daughters, left this morning for Las Vegas, where she will visit friends for a few days.

William Dunbar, the Chilif sheep and wool raiser, who has enjoyed metropolitan life the past few days, will return to his home in Tennessee. He was here for his health, and expects to return in a few months.

Henry Lockhart, the blind miner and prospector, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

J. Thompson Landsey, the shoe representative, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

William Farn, the south Second street meat dealer, who was at Gallup on business, returned to the city this morning.

W. H. Kemp, proprietor of the hotel on Thornton, is in the city to-day on business.

Andy Adams, who was at Denver on pleasure and business, has returned to the city.

Elmer L. Parker, the south Second street meat dealer, who was at Gallup on business, returned to the city this morning.

Frank Scottie, one of the well-known Republican politicians of Grant county, came in from the south this morning and was a pleasant caller at this office. He will return south-to-morrow morning.

B. H. Borden, of Gallup, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Borden will commence the erection of a residence for Rev. George J. Jullard, at Gallup, next Monday. The building will cost about $200.

Jack Chandler, a cattlemen, whose stock roam over the ranges of Sierra county, came in from Kansas City last night and continued south this morning. He passed through the city a short time ago in charge of a train load of cattle.

Joseph Columbin, for years the painter at the local government Indian school, left this morning for the Far West. After a stay there of a few weeks, he will visit Switzerland. He will be absent from New Mexico for three months.

Captain George M. Cundiff is again in El Paso, and in the mixologist at Hotel Zeiger's bar and buffet. He has manipulated so many new fashioned summer drinks that the reporters on the newspapers of that city cannot keep the run of the new inventions.

Charles A. Spies, with his wife and their pretty curly-haired daughter, Miss Jeannette, passed through the city this morning from southern California, where Mrs. Spies and daughter have been spending the past few months. Mr. Spies is a prominent republican attorney and politician of Los Vegas.

Colonel John Barndroff, manager of the First Regiment band, informed The Citizen that the Wednesday evening band concert at Robinson Park has been changed to Thursday at 7:30 o'clock. The Sunday evening concerts will continue as usual. These concerts, two every week, will grow in popularity.

J. L. Lamprey, wife, daughter and son left this morning for Santa Fe, and thence to Las Vegas and other northern New Mexico towns. Mr. Lamprey is the New Mexico, Arizona and Texas agent for the Mills Novelty company of Chicago—the new cigarette machine, and while here he took orders for eight machines.

The 8-year-old son of Jerome Mather, Kenneth Mather, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He was outside of an arbor, when the "fleidy" animal threw the lad off its back. Kenneth was picked up unconscious, but he is reported doing nicely to-day, although he sustained several serious injuries.

A few days ago The Citizen called attention to the fact that Mrs. Julia Conant, aged 82 years, was here, having been helped by "sweet charity" on her way from town to town from Florida, Ill., en route to Flagstaff, where she has a daughter at work. The old lady stopped two days at the Grand Central hotel, and then went to Flagstaff, the Pueblo transportation being furnished by the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association. Another subject of charity—Miss Fannie Bennett, registering at the Hotel Highland from Socorro—will be sent to-night by the Benevolent association to El Paso. She is blind and has been lecturing for a living.

Bernard Spitz and Fred Hanan, who left a few days ago for the Manzano mountains to hunt wild animals, have returned to the city. They had a fine time, but failed to bag any big game, although it is stated as an absolute fact that Mr. Spitz distinguished himself several times with a rifle, he hitting something every time he pulled the trigger and never missed a shot, excepting out of the barrel the bullet held. They did some missionary work for the fair, and saw to it that every house that they came in sight had a poster about the fair.

A well-known and popular married couple, residing over in the Third ward, reached the twentieth mile post in their wedded life yesterday, and in the evening invited about twenty friends to their pleasant home to celebrate the event. However, before permitting the guests to enter their home, they were taken to the catalog room, where all first enjoyed a good bath, and on returning to the home festivities were inaugurated on a fine scale. Everybody had a splendid time, and the host of refreshments were served.

J. W. Jones, who raises cattle and carries on a general merchandise store at Pecos, in Socorro county, was here a few hours last night, returned from Chivington, Colo., where he has a big bunch of cattle feeding for the Kansas City and Chicago markets. He continued south this morning.

Miss T. Jaramillo came in from Los Lunas this morning. She is here to do some shopping. M. W. Brown, members of the firm of Brown-Morales company, Las Vegas, registered at the European last night, and went south this morning.

Mr. Dutson, son of Captain and Mrs. A. H. Dutson, is a passenger to the city this morning from Magdalena. He stops at the Standard European.

Mr. Dutson and family came in from the west this morning and continued east on a visit. Mr. Dutson is the Harvey hotel manager at Winslow.

H. E. Fox, the well-known jeweler and watch inspector, out west, was a passenger for Gallup and Winslow last night, to be absent for several days.

Felix Lester, attorney, who went up to the Rio Pecos country a few days ago, returned to the city last night accompanied by Mrs. Lester and daughter.

W. P. Nott, one of the traveling superintendents of the Harveyeating house, came in from the west this morning and will visit city relatives and friends for a few days.

Captain "Red Hot" Frost, conductor on the west end of the Santa Fe Pacific, came in this morning to enjoy a day's visit with his wife. He returns to Winslow-to-night.

District Attorney T. A. Finical was a passenger for El Paso, Texas, this morning, where he goes on some important legal matters. He will probably be absent several days.

Hon. Neil B. Field, the attorney, was a passenger for the upper Rio Pecos country this morning. When he returns to the city in about a week, he will be accompanied home by his wife.

Gus Mullikind, of Gallup, is making a big success out of his well-horing plant. He has just finished a 300-foot well at Gibson, which supplies about 45,000 gallons of water per day.

Mrs. Gibson and son, John Gibson, mother and brother of James Gibson, the railway line repairer, returned to their home in Topeka, Kan., after a pleasant visit in this city.

Miss Mary Smith, of Gallup, who was here the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Norris and daughters, left this morning for Las Vegas, where she will visit friends for a few days.

William Dunbar, the Chilif sheep and wool raiser, who has enjoyed metropolitan life the past few days, will return to his home in Tennessee. He was here for his health, and expects to return in a few months.

Henry Lockhart, the blind miner and prospector, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

J. Thompson Landsey, the shoe representative, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

W. H. Kemp, proprietor of the hotel on Thornton, is in the city to-day on business.

Andy Adams, who was at Denver on pleasure and business, has returned to the city.

Elmer L. Parker, the south Second street meat dealer, who was at Gallup on business, returned to the city this morning.

Frank Scottie, one of the well-known Republican politicians of Grant county, came in from the south this morning and was a pleasant caller at this office. He will return south-to-morrow morning.

B. H. Borden, of Gallup, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Borden will commence the erection of a residence for Rev. George J. Jullard, at Gallup, next Monday. The building will cost about $200.

Jack Chandler, a cattlemen, whose stock roam over the ranges of Sierra county, came in from Kansas City last night and continued south this morning. He passed through the city a short time ago in charge of a train load of cattle.

Joseph Columbin, for years the painter at the local government Indian school, left this morning for the Far West. After a stay there of a few weeks, he will visit Switzerland. He will be absent from New Mexico for three months.

Captain George M. Cundiff is again in El Paso, and in the mixologist at Hotel Zeiger's bar and buffet. He has manipulated so many new fashioned summer drinks that the reporters on the newspapers of that city cannot keep the run of the new inventions.

Charles A. Spies, with his wife and their pretty curly-haired daughter, Miss Jeannette, passed through the city this morning from southern California, where Mrs. Spies and daughter have been spending the past few months. Mr. Spies is a prominent republican attorney and politician of Los Vegas.

Colonel John Barndroff, manager of the First Regiment band, informed The Citizen that the Wednesday evening band concert at Robinson Park has been changed to Thursday at 7:30 o'clock. The Sunday evening concerts will continue as usual. These concerts, two every week, will grow in popularity.

J. L. Lamprey, wife, daughter and son left this morning for Santa Fe, and thence to Las Vegas and other northern New Mexico towns. Mr. Lamprey is the New Mexico, Arizona and Texas agent for the Mills Novelty company of Chicago—the new cigarette machine, and while here he took orders for eight machines.

The 8-year-old son of Jerome Mather, Kenneth Mather, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He was outside of an arbor, when the "fleidy" animal threw the lad off its back. Kenneth was picked up unconscious, but he is reported doing nicely to-day, although he sustained several serious injuries.

A few days ago The Citizen called attention to the fact that Mrs. Julia Conant, aged 82 years, was here, having been helped by "sweet charity" on her way from town to town from Florida, Ill., en route to Flagstaff, where she has a daughter at work. The old lady stopped two days at the Grand Central hotel, and then went to Flagstaff, the Pueblo transportation being furnished by the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association. Another subject of charity—Miss Fannie Bennett, registering at the Hotel Highland from Socorro—will be sent to-night by the Benevolent association to El Paso. She is blind and has been lecturing for a living.

Bernard Spitz and Fred Hanan, who left a few days ago for the Manzano mountains to hunt wild animals, have returned to the city. They had a fine time, but failed to bag any big game, although it is stated as an absolute fact that Mr. Spitz distinguished himself several times with a rifle, he hitting

CROP BULLETIN.

Drought Continues Along the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS.

Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 7.—Warm and dry weather continues, with scarcely a drop of rain since the first of July. The crops are suffering over all sections of the territory, but in the lower Rio Grande and in Taos and Rio Arriba counties the fall was light, and drought conditions will prevail to some extent. Corn will be greatly improved by the rains and grass on the ranges will be good, but as most of the wheat, oats and barley is about ready for harvest, the crop is in a bad way.

J. W. Jones, who raises cattle and carries on a general merchandise store at Pecos, in Socorro county, was here a few hours last night, returned from Chivington, Colo., where he has a big bunch of cattle feeding for the Kansas City and Chicago markets. He continued south this morning.

Miss T. Jaramillo came in from Los Lunas this morning. She is here to do some shopping. M. W. Brown, members of the firm of Brown-Morales company, Las Vegas, registered at the European last night, and went south this morning.

Mr. Dutson, son of Captain and Mrs. A. H. Dutson, is a passenger to the city this morning from Magdalena. He stops at the Standard European.

Mr. Dutson and family came in from the west this morning and continued east on a visit. Mr. Dutson is the Harvey hotel manager at Winslow.

H. E. Fox, the well-known jeweler and watch inspector, out west, was a passenger for Gallup and Winslow last night, to be absent for several days.

Felix Lester, attorney, who went up to the Rio Pecos country a few days ago, returned to the city last night accompanied by Mrs. Lester and daughter.

W. P. Nott, one of the traveling superintendents of the Harveyeating house, came in from the west this morning and will visit city relatives and friends for a few days.

Captain "Red Hot" Frost, conductor on the west end of the Santa Fe Pacific, came in this morning to enjoy a day's visit with his wife. He returns to Winslow-to-night.

District Attorney T. A. Finical was a passenger for El Paso, Texas, this morning, where he goes on some important legal matters. He will probably be absent several days.

Hon. Neil B. Field, the attorney, was a passenger for the upper Rio Pecos country this morning. When he returns to the city in about a week, he will be accompanied home by his wife.

Gus Mullikind, of Gallup, is making a big success out of his well-horing plant. He has just finished a 300-foot well at Gibson, which supplies about 45,000 gallons of water per day.

Mrs. Gibson and son, John Gibson, mother and brother of James Gibson, the railway line repairer, returned to their home in Topeka, Kan., after a pleasant visit in this city.

Miss Mary Smith, of Gallup, who was here the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Norris and daughters, left this morning for Las Vegas, where she will visit friends for a few days.

William Dunbar, the Chilif sheep and wool raiser, who has enjoyed metropolitan life the past few days, will return to his home in Tennessee. He was here for his health, and expects to return in a few months.

Henry Lockhart, the blind miner and prospector, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

J. Thompson Landsey, the shoe representative, who was here yesterday taking orders left this morning for the north.

W. H. Kemp, proprietor of the hotel on Thornton, is in the city to-day on business.

Andy Adams, who was at Denver on pleasure and business, has returned to the city.

Elmer L. Parker, the south Second street meat dealer, who was at Gallup on business, returned to the city this morning.

Frank Scottie, one of the well-known Republican politicians of Grant county, came in from the south this morning and was a pleasant caller at this office. He will return south-to-morrow morning.

B. H. Borden, of Gallup, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Borden will commence the erection of a residence for Rev. George J. Jullard, at Gallup, next Monday. The building will cost about $200.

Jack Chandler, a cattlemen, whose stock roam over the ranges of Sierra county, came in from Kansas City last night and continued south this morning. He passed through the city a short time ago in charge of a train load of cattle.

Joseph Columbin, for years the painter at the local government Indian school, left this morning for the Far West. After a stay there of a few weeks, he will visit Switzerland. He will be absent from New Mexico for three months.

Captain George M. Cundiff is again in El Paso, and in the mixologist at Hotel Zeiger's bar and buffet. He has manipulated so many new fashioned summer drinks that the reporters on the newspapers of that city cannot keep the run of the new inventions.

Charles A. Spies, with his wife and their pretty curly-haired daughter, Miss Jeannette, passed through the city this morning from southern California, where Mrs. Spies and daughter have been spending the past few months. Mr. Spies is a prominent republican attorney and politician of Los Vegas.

Colonel John Barndroff, manager of the First Regiment band, informed The Citizen that the Wednesday evening band concert at Robinson Park has been changed to Thursday at 7:30 o'clock. The Sunday evening concerts will continue as usual. These concerts, two every week, will grow in popularity.

J. L. Lamprey, wife, daughter and son left this morning for Santa Fe, and thence to Las Vegas and other northern New Mexico towns. Mr. Lamprey is the New Mexico, Arizona and Texas agent for the Mills Novelty company of Chicago—the new cigarette machine, and while here he took orders for eight machines.

The 8-year-old son of Jerome Mather, Kenneth Mather, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He was outside of an arbor, when the "fleidy" animal threw the lad off its back. Kenneth was picked up unconscious, but he is reported doing nicely to-day, although he sustained several serious injuries.

A few days ago The Citizen called attention to the